

gone to Winona Lake for National Conference, funeral services were conducted by the undersigned. Sister Katherine was converted five years ago and became one of the charter members of the Salisbury church and died in a living hope of a blessed immortality. She was one of those loved and admired by all who knew her, because of her many virtues which was testified to by the very large concourse of people attending her funeral. We pray for the blessings of a sustaining grace upon the bereaved household in this their hour of sad affliction.

"The Lord has need of these flowerets gay,"
The Reaper said and smiled;
"Dear tokens of the earth are they,
Where he was once a child."

Sermon by the undersigned from John 20:15.

McREIGHT.—On the 9th day of August, 1900, and after lingering for over a year suffering from consumption brother Ed McReight, of Johnstown, Pa., met death in the perfect hope of eternal life thru Christ. The funeral services were conducted by the writer at the home of brother and sister Park Stahl where nearly all of his sick days were spent and whose unflagging interest and care for him had been an example of Christian doing worthy of imitation. Brother McReight was at his request anointed according to James 5:14, and having made peace with God was content to go. Of a large family none but the father is left to mourn nearly all having died of the same dread disease. The remains were interred in Saundy Vale cemetery. May God bring us all to him in peace.
